

MIGRANT RIGHTS:
NIGERIAN – POLISH INITIATIVE

Rights and Obligations of Foreigners studying in Poland

October 14th, 2010

Ośrodek Praw Człowieka, Jagiellonian University

10:00 – 10:15: Registration

10:15 – 10:30: Wisdom Ejebugha (Rule of Law Institute Foundation): Opening speech; presentation of the project Migrant Rights: Nigerian-Polish Initiative

10:30 – 11:00: Anna Urban and Szymon Strzelichowski Malopolski Voivodshop Office in Kraków Representative – „Foreign Students in Poland: legalizing residence in Poland on the basis of studies”

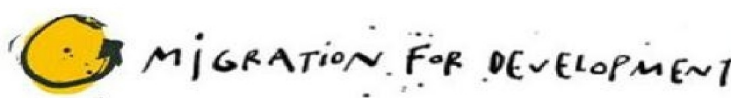

11:00 – 11:30: Wiesław Pluciński and Monika Grabiec Korczyńska Border Guard Representative – „Foreign Students in Poland: travelling to other countries of the Schengen Zone”

11:30 – 11:45: Coffee break

11:45 – 12:15: Dagmara Jachacz (Rule of Law Institute Foundation) – „Foreign Students in Poland: undertaking employment – labor law and civil law contracts”

12:45 – 13:30: Discussion

13:30: Conclusion, lunch

Project funded by the European Commission - United Nations, Joint Migration and Development Initiative (JMIDI), implemented by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP).